FRODSHAM COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION NEWSLETTER

November 2015

Season's Greetings

It's Christmas at Neville & Belinda Bunker's house and all the family have gathered together for the festivities. But as the children lurk just out of sight, it's the adults who are letting the side down. Presiding over it all are two warring uncles: Harvey, a bullying, retired security quard who keeps the TV remote to himself, buys toy guns for his nieces and believes there's a thief in the party and Bernard, a kindly, incompetent doctor with an interminable puppet show to perform. As the Christmas celebrations get underway, there's cheating at snakes and ladders, fighting over comic books and a bungled infidelity beneath the tree.

Alan Ayckbourn's masterly Season's Greetings offers a seriously entertaining look at the misery and high jinks of an average family Christmas.

The play will be performed by Frodsham Players on 2-5 December at Frodsham Community Centre, Fluin Lane, Frodsham, WA6 7QN. Curtain up is at 7:30pm and tickets cost £9. Tickets are available from www.frodshamplayers.com or by calling 01928 732285.

LOL!

I don't often go out on a Sunday evening, but there was a comedy event advertised to take place at Frodsham Community Centre on the 11th October. It sounded different "90 minutes of original comedy sketches".

It was a good decision to buy tickets to see "From Here To Absurdity"; the short sketches, delivered by one woman and two men were entertaining and topical – there was laughter throughout the evening.

The venue, the recently refurbished LiveLounge, was perfect for the event. The bar was open and supper was served during the interval.

For me, the highlights of the evening were the group's hilarious rendition of "Stuck in the middle with you" and "In the ghetto", where the lyrics were almost unforgivably politically incorrect, but very funny.

What a great way to spend a Sunday evening!
