SPONSORSHIPS

Sponsorships are not ads, they are badges of honour

A sponsorship is not a typical ad. Instead, with a sponsorship, you make your brand part of Discover Frodsham. You directly link your company to the magazine's values and those of its readers.

Customers are starting to look beyond flashy advertising and are instead starting to scrutinise a companies values. A sponsorship allows your company to exhibit those values and support a unique project which is part of the local community.

A sponsorship will get you respect and recognition from the community. It lets your potential customers know that you support the community, its small businesses and its people.
