

Frodsham Community Centre celebrated fifty years since opening during a weekend at the beginning of October.

Eighty guests enjoyed a reception and short performance by Frodsham Players, the cutting of the cake by Mrs Beryl Bateman, and a chance to meet up with old friends and new to acknowledge the achievement of everyone who makes The Centre what it still is today.

The presentation of the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service was the highlight of the weekend when the Lord Lieutenant of Cheshire, Mr David Briggs spoke about the award and its significance and presented the Crystal Award and Certificate to FCA Chairman Graham Reeves before a packed audience in the main hall. Mr Briggs spent some time speaking to many groups around the Centre who had taken the opportunity to display their activities, allowing visitors to not only discover something new but also see how large the Centre actually is.

Friends also enjoyed a Dance through the Decades on Saturday evening and the celebrations were rounded off with an afternoon tea and entertainment from Frodsham Sings and Weaver Words.

Thank You to all the individuals and organisations who made the weekend such a success.

Centre Points Editor Required

The monthly newsletter Centre Points is looking for a new editor to cover news and information relevant to the association and the events taking place in The Centre.

If you like to know what goes on at The Centre, can chase the stories, edit articles from groups and have some computing skills then this could be the post for you. You would be working with Elaine who covers the Diary Page so if you are interested please get in touch with the FCA Chair Graham Reeves as soon as possible.

Frodsham Music and Arts Club

The Club's new season at the Community Centre has produced near capacity audiences for the first two monthly events. The Northern Rhythm Big Band on Friday 22 November is set to continue this trend.

Comprising exceptional musicians led by hot trumpet player Mark White, the band has a great reputation playing music made popular by legends such as Glen Miller, Duke Ellington, Frank Sinatra etc. With their punchy swinging style this tight-knit ensemble, featuring outstanding singers Laura Steventon and Andy Bayley, has recently sold out several concerts.

Tickets are available at the door: guests £10, or membership (all events until May) £16. Contact Jane Mooney, membership secretary, for further details on 01928 731855.
