NALC Model Standing Orders Introduction

These model Standing Orders update the National Association of Local Council (NALC) model Standing Orders contained in “Local Councils Explained” by Meera Tharmarajah (© 2013 NALC). This publication contains new model Standing Orders which reference new legislation introduced after 2013 when the last model Standing Orders were published.

How to Use Model Standing Orders

Standing Orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing Orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use Standing Orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The Standing Orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but Standing Orders may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. NALC model Standing Orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject. It is not possible for the model Standing Orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. For example, it is not practical for model Standing Orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in a council's Standing Orders.

The model Standing Orders do not include model financial regulations. Financial regulations are Standing Orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the Standing Orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council's Responsible Financial Officer. Model financial regulations are available to councils in membership of NALC.

Drafting Notes

Model Standing Orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. It is recommended that councils adopt them without changing them or their meaning. Model Standing Orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements, so they may be adopted as drafted or amended to suit a council's needs. It is NALC's view that all model Standing Orders will generally be suitable for councils.

For convenience, the word “councillor” is used in model Standing Orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights. A model standing order that includes brackets like this ‘()’ requires information to be inserted by a council. A model standing order that includes brackets like this ‘[]’ and the term ‘OR’ provides alternative options for a council to choose from when determining Standing Orders.

These Standing Orders, as amended and adopted by FTC, include the FTC arrangements for the selection and investiture of the Mayor and Deputy Mayor.

The Chairman of the Council is entitled to call himself ‘town mayor’, however since 2012 FTC resolved to separate the role of Chairman of the Council from that of the Mayor of Frodsham, the Council’s principal civic representative.

The Council adopt a convention to offer the role of Mayor of Frodsham to the Councillor who has served the Council the longest - based on total years of service to the Council, either from the date of first becoming a member of this Council or last serving this Council in the position of Mayor whichever is the later. All service, whether or not continuous service is to be aggregated from the date of first election/co-option or from last holding the position of Mayor whichever is the later.

In addition, the previous year’s Deputy Mayor will become the Mayor in the following year.

The Town Clerk will circulate a list to all councillors no later than 1st May in each year showing their respective rankings. Where two or more councillors share the same priority, the Town Clerk shall include suggestions as to how the respective priorities may be determined by lot or chance in default of agreement between the relevant members as to their respective order.

Any Councillor who is subject to an ongoing Code of Conduct complaint shall not be eligible to serve as Mayor or Deputy Mayor until the complaint is decided.

Any Councillor who is subject to sanctions following a Code of Conduct complaint shall not be eligible to serve as Mayor or Deputy Mayor for two years following the completion of the sanctions, unless otherwise agreed by a resolution of the full council.
