1. Purpose

This sets out the Parish Council's approach when engaging and making payments to individuals or businesses operating as sole traders or self-employed suppliers. Its aim is to ensure compliance with HMRC requirements, maintain transparency, and provide a clear audit trail for all payments.

2. Employment Status

Before engaging an individual for services, the Council shall determine whether the person is:

- (a) An employee — engaged under a contract of employment, requiring PAYE and National Insurance deductions; or
- (b) Self-employed / Sole trader — providing services under a contract for services, responsible for their own tax affairs.

The Council will use HMRC's Check Employment Status for Tax (CEST) tool (available at www.gov.uk/guidance/check-employment-status-for-tax) to confirm the correct status when there is any doubt.

3. Payments to Self-Employed Suppliers

Where a supplier is confirmed as self-employed:

- 3.1 The Parish Council will make payment only on receipt of a valid invoice showing the supplier's name, address, description of services, date, and total amount due.
- 3.2 The Council will not deduct tax or National Insurance contributions, as these remain the sole responsibility of the supplier to declare and pay to HMRC through their Self-Assessment process.
- 3.3 Payments should ordinarily be made by bank transfer.
- 3.4 If cash payment is unavoidable, a signed receipt must be obtained, and the transaction must be recorded in the Council's cashbook with supporting documentation.

4. Record Keeping

The Responsible Financial Officer (RFO) shall:

- 4.1 Retain invoices and receipts in accordance with the Council's financial records policy.
- 4.2 Ensure all payments are properly authorised and minuted in accordance with Financial Regulations.
- 4.3 Make the relevant records available to internal and external auditors upon request.

5. Review

This policy shall be reviewed at least every two years, or sooner if required by changes to HMRC guidance or audit recommendations.

Appendix 3 - Value Added Tax (VAT) Reclaims VAT126 Process

1. The Council shall reclaim Value Added Tax (VAT) on eligible expenditure through the VAT126 process, in accordance with HMRC guidance.
2. VAT may only be reclaimed where:
 - a. The original supplier's invoice or receipt is made out in the name of the Council; or
 - b. The purchase has been made by the Clerk or other authorised officer under properly delegated authority, and reimbursement is made by the Council.
3. VAT shall not be reclaimed on any goods or services purchased or paid for directly by individual Members (Councillors), as such transactions are not considered to be made by the Council.
4. This position was confirmed on 11 November 2025 by the Cheshire Association of Local Councils with advice from The Parkinson Partnership LLP.
