Film Premiere - 4th May

On Monday 4th May Matthew George Walsh (creator) held a charity screening of 'Semolina Pilchard' at the Centre. The film was shot in and around Frodsham and used many local people as extras. You might remember seeing cameras and actors outside Frodshams Main Street post office and also on the train station? Those involved were invited as special guests to watch the film and tickets were also sold to raise money for charity.

The bar was open and there was plenty of laughter as the film told the story of a terminally ill Liverpool gangster who summons his estranged eldest daughter back to their hometown after a five-year absence. However, his youngest daughter is determined to inherit everything and plots to eliminate her!

The film stars Joe McGann, Ricky Thomlinson, Louis Emerick, Jack Ryder and many more. Give it a watch and see how many locations you can recognise.

Frodsham Players Summer Production

Frodsham Players have been rehearsing for their next show which will be at Castle Park Arts Centre. The Summer production will be 'Twelfth Night' by William Shakespeare

Shipwrecks, disguises, and delicious chaos collide in this vibrant seaside take on Twelfth Night. As love triangles tangle and identities blur, a cast of eccentrics chase romance, and mischief. With music, laughter, and heart, Shakespeare's comedy sweeps you into a world where nobody is quite what they seem.
